1. Introduction

1.1. Purpose of the Guide

The purpose of this guide is to provide instructions on how to end a single contract for an employee, where that employee has multiple active contracts on the system.

This does not refer to employees that are to be made leavers from the organisation. That detail is covered in the Leavers user guide.

When ending a single contract for the employee in this way:

- Other active contracts that the employee has will remain unaffected.
- Any other contracts elements associated with that contract will also be ended e.g.
 - Salary
 - Allowances
 - Deductions
 - Pension Scheme assignments
 - Cost Allocations assignments

2. Ending a Contract

1. Go to Command Centre > Employees.

2.2. Substantive Date Impact

When the substantive contract has been ended and the end date has passed, the system will automatically identify the new contract to be flagged as substantive.

The next substantive contract may be:

1. The only contract that remains.
- OR
2. If multiple additional contracts exist:
 - The contract with the greatest FTE
 - If FTE is the same for both, the contract with the earliest start date
 - IF FTE and start date are the same, the contract with the earliest input date

For Example

The “Payroll Administrator” was the substantive contract before it was ended, as identified by the star.
