1. Overview

1.1. Purpose of the Guide

This document provides guidance on how to use Terms and Conditions (T&C) Profiles on Popel XD including:

- Creating and updating T&C Profiles.
- Assigning T&C Profiles to Post Profiles.
- Assigning Post T&Cs to employee contracts.

1.2. What are Terms and Conditions Profiles?

Terms and Conditions (T&C) Profiles are templates of contracted terms and conditions that can be associated with Posts and Contracts.

Rules can be defined as to when a profile is relevant to a Post Profile e.g. based on status, location etc.

The following contract elements can be defined:

- Probation Expiry
- Employee and Employer Notice Periods
- Increment Due Date and Hold Indicator
- Allowances
- Balances

1.3. How are T&C Profiles Assigned to Contracts?

Once a T&C Profile is defined on CoreHR, it must be linked to a Post Profile.

Once the template is linked to the Post, the T&Cs can be further updated to be more specific to the chosen Post.

All contracts created from the Post may be assigned the Post T&Cs via HR Process Task Lists.

- T&Cs cannot be assigned to employee contracts if task lists are not used.
- While being assigned via task lists, the T&Cs can be further updated to be more specific to the selected contract.

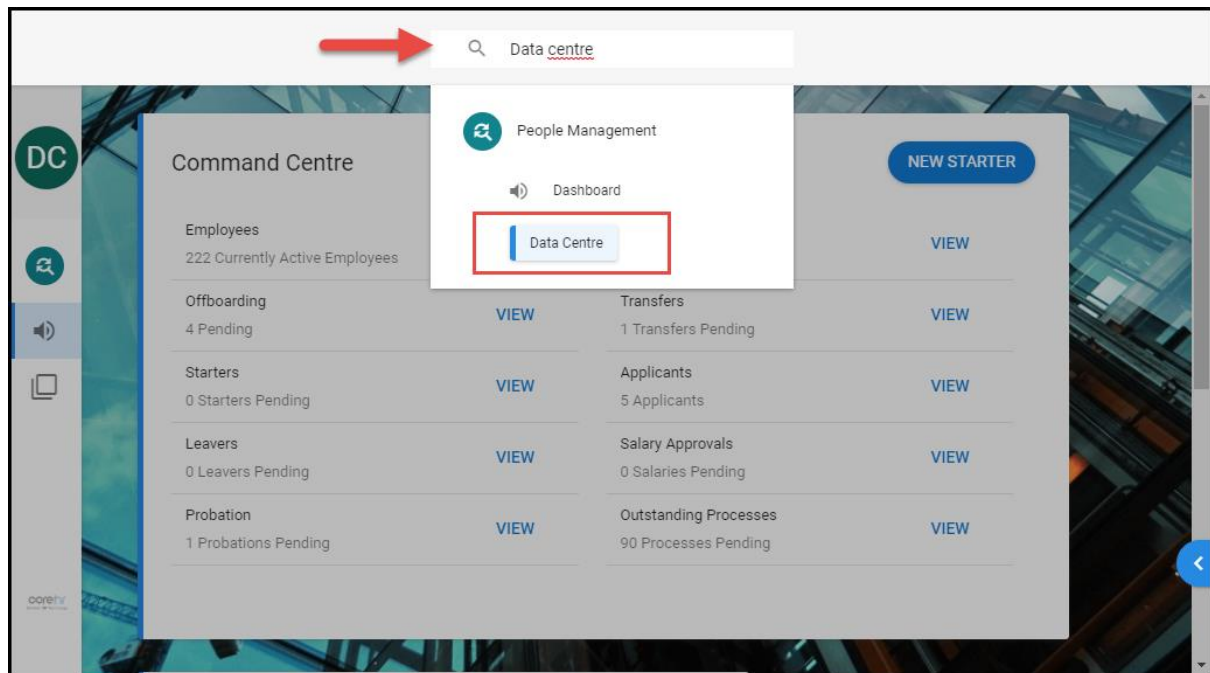

Once both the task list is complete and the contract is commenced, the T&Cs are applied.

3.1.5. Allow T&Cs to be Updated from Template Profile

If the Update from Template Profile indicator is enabled, then this implies that the T&Cs for this Post may be updated if the actual T&C Profile is edited. If not enabled, changes to the T&C Profile do not update the Post Profile assigned T&Cs.

3.2. Assigning T&Cs to a Contract

3.2.1. T&Cs and Task Lists

When an employee is awarded a new contract (i.e. on completion of the New Hire, New Contract or Rehire Contract wizard) the Task List automatically pops-up on screen. Different task lists may be configured for New Hire, New Contract and Re-Hire.

The Task List can provide 3 different T&C options:

- Terms and Conditions General
- Terms and Conditions Balances
- Terms and Conditions Pay

Depending on how your organisation uses T&Cs, not all options have to be added. However, if using the Balances and/or Pay options, then the General option must also be included and completed.

The screenshot shows the 'Task List' interface for a user named 'Administrator' (JL) who is 'Active'. The 'Start Date' is '12-Jul-2012' and the 'Payroll Status' is 'Open for Processing'. The 'Task List' section is titled 'Task List - New Starter' and contains a table with three rows of tasks. Each row has a 'Title', a 'Type', and a 'Status' column. The 'Status' column contains a button labeled 'Outstanding' and a link labeled 'VIEW'.

Title	Type	Status
Terms and Conditions General	Optional	Outstanding VIEW
Terms and Conditions Balances	Optional	Outstanding VIEW
Terms and Conditions Pay	Optional	Outstanding VIEW

Each of the task items is optional i.e. they do not need to be updated by the user in order to complete the task list. However, if the user completes the task list without updating each T&C item, then the T&Cs are not be applied to the contract.

The Task List can be completed if the contract is Pending, Started or Future. However, until all options are completed and the task list is completed, the T&Cs are not applied.

3.2.2. Auto-Authorised Post Profile

This section provides an example of how T&Cs are applied to contracts that are created using an 'Auto-Authorised' post profile.

1. Appoint the employee to a contract via an auto-authorised Post Profile:
 - The contract is Pending.
 - The task list appears.

3.2.3. Auto-Commenced Post Profile

When the employee has been appointed to a contract via an auto-commenced Post Profile:

- The contract has a status as Started or Future.
- The task list pops-up.

The task list options must be completed as per 3.2.2 Auto-Authorised Post Profile.

However, once the task list is completed, the T&Cs are automatically applied. This is because the contract is Commenced.

- The T&Cs are only applied once all options are completed and the Task List is completed.
- The T&Cs can be reviewed but not updated via the Terms and Conditions option.

3.2.4. Non-Auto Post Profile

When using non-auto Post Profiles to create Contracts, the Balance & Allowances T&Cs must be assigned to the Planned & Authorised Post Appointment on the Post Appointment Maintenance screen.

If this step is messed, the Allowances and Balances defined on the T&C Profile, are not available to assign to the employee's appointed Contract.

To do this:

1. On the Planned & Authorised Post Appointment, select the option 9 - Terms and Conditions from the Selection drop-down list.
2. The Terms and Conditions screen pops-up.
3. On the Description and Payroll Rules tab, details can be updated here as required, if the terms need to be updated for this specific contract.
4. Ensure to click the Save button when any changes are made.
5. On the Allowance Details screen, ensure that the Assigned indicator is enabled for the allowances that is be assigned to the contract via T&Cs
 - Only Allowances that were assigned on the Post Profile T&Cs appear here.
 - If an allowance does not need to be on the contract, disable in the Assigned indicator.
 - Use the Add button to add new allowances/negative allowances directly to the contract T&Cs here.
 - Ensure to Save any changes made.

Only allowances/negative allowances that have the Assigned indicator enabled here are available on the employee's contracted T&Cs.

6. On the Balances screen, ensure that the Assigned indicator is enabled for the balances that are assigned to the contract via T&Cs.
 - Only Balances that were assigned on the Post Profile T&Cs appear here.
 - If a balance does not need to be available on the contract, disable in the Assigned indicator.
 - Use the Add button to add new balances directly to the contract T&Cs here.
 - Ensure to Save any changes made.

Only balances that have the Assigned indicator enabled here are available on the employee's contracted T&Cs.

7. Once the T&Cs have been updated and changes saved, proceed to appoint an employee to the contract. Once appointed, the Task List tab is available.
8. Complete the task list options as per guidance in 3.2.2 Auto-Authorised Post Profile.
9. Re General
 - Updated the general terms as required and Save.
10. Re Pay and Allowances:
 - Only allowances that have been assigned to the Planned and Authorised Appointment are available here.
 - These are automatically Unassigned and must be Assigned in order to be created on the employee's contract.
 - Add a new allowance if required.
 - Any new allowances are created as Assigned but are only saved if the task option is saved.
 - Any allowances that have not been set to Assigned here are not created for the employee's contract when the task list is completed, and the contract commenced.
11. Re Balances:
 - Only allowances that have been assigned to the Planned and Authorised Appointment are available here.
 - These are Assigned by default.
 - The user can:
 - Add a new balance.
 - Un-assign/delete the existing balances.
 - Any changes made need to be saved on the task option.
12. Once all options are completed, click the Complete button to complete the task list.

The Terms and Conditions option available on the dashboard provides a read only view of the T&Cs, which can no longer be updated.

Finally, T&Cs can only be applied once the employee's contract is commenced.

Once commenced, the T&Cs are then applied to the employee's contract:

This includes:

- Probation Expiry
- Notice Periods
- Balances
- Allowances (pending if using Salary Approvals)
- Increment Due Date and Hold Indicator.

(Screenshots of where these are applied can be found under 3.2.2 Auto-Authorised Post Profile).

3.2.5. Restructured Contracts

As part of the restructuring feature on CoreHR, there is an option to "Update Existing Contract ID". When this option is used, a new appointment ID is not created as part of restructuring and therefore the Terms and Conditions associated with the employee's contract remain available to view for that contract.
