

 Search for articles...

All Collections > Security configuration

Security configuration

Configuring menu profiles and assigning menu options.

S By Steve and 1 other • 9 articles

Access to delete contracts and contract amendments, or to switch posts

Grant administrators the necessary permissions to delete appointments, remove sequences, or reassign an employee's post. >

Portal: Assign a menu profile to a user

How to assign menu profiles to individual users. >

Grant access to view applicants in the Command Centre

Enable viewing of successful applicants in the People Management Command Centre. >

Reset an account password

Reset the password for a user's portal or back office account >

Grant access to delete an employee

Enable the Delete Person functionality for a user by assigning the appropriate menu option. >

Changing a portal account username

Assign an employee's account to a new username if their personal details change or the current one doesn't link to their staff record. >

Assigning default menu profiles >

Options available for allocating menu profiles to employees.

Portal: Create a Back Office account

How to create a Back Office account in portal security.

Single sign-on with LDAP

Record a users LDAP username so they can log in using SSO

access

PeopleXD People Management

Useful Links

Privacy Policy