

 Search for articles...

All Collections > Expense runs & advances

Expense runs & advances

Expense run process, payments, and advances.

By Harry and 1 other • 28 articles

Paid expense trips appear in the new expense run

Several claims with a paid status need to be closed off because they are coming across the new expense run.

Unable to generate payment claims in the expense run

Unable to run the generate payment claim, the trip is still at approved or the already Submitted check box is selected.

Generate payment claims is not working

When doing an expense run, the generate payment claims is not working.

Advance is not clearing down

Clear down an advance that was repaid outside of the system.

Roll back expense run validation

Rollback an expense run validation process.

Paid claims still showing as Processed

Expenses claims where processed and claimants have been Paid. However these expenses are still showing as Processed.

Error: Expense run validation already completed

Error when trying to run the generate payment claims in back office.

Advance payment not linking to expense claim

Claimant received an advance and submitted an expense claim to match off against the advance but the outstanding advance did not link in with the claim.

Paid claims still showing as Processed

Expenses claims where processed and claimants have been Paid, however these expenses are still showing as Processed.

Input an advance paid out with the expense run

Input an expense advance into an employee record to show that it has been paid to them.

Remove an advance from a rejected trip

Remove an advance from a rejected trip and attach it to new approved trip

Error while carrying out an expense run: query caused no records to be retrieved

Error while carrying out an expense run: query caused no records to be retrieved

Expense job stuck at status 1

When carrying out an expense run, the expense job is stuck at status 1.

Checklist when comparing reports generating during Expense Run

When doing an expense run, some reports are generated automatically, and some are recommended to be generated by the user.

Expense run process

Everything you need to do to complete an expense run.

Payments by company have a status of processed and not paid

Some expenses are marked as PROCESSED even after the expense run they were included in has been finalised.

Advance recouped but still showing as outstanding

Advance has been recouped last year but still showing as outstanding for claim input this current year.

Job Queue Status

The different job statuses displayed on the Job Queue screen in CoreExpense.

Unable to select a project code when creating an expense in portal

A new project code was created in back office, but employees are unable to select it in Core Portal when creating an expense report.

View old expense receipts in portal

Retrieve old receipts from portal.

Delete a claim from a trip

A trip has a claim attached that needs to be deleted.

Delete trips with a status of new in Back Office

Delete trips with a status of new via back office.

Duplicate expense detection

Steps on how to set up duplicate expense detection and enable alerts for approvers to identify and flag duplicate claims quickly and efficiently.

Expense Approval History is blank

The expense approval history tab is blank for all staff who approve expenses.

Reject individual expenses claims

Reject individual expenses claims in back office before they are committed to payroll for payment.

Remove a trip from a claim

Steps to remove a trip from a claim in an expense run.

View receipt in back office

View or download an expense receipt in back office.

Error: 'You do not have access to run this option'

When accessing the Expense Item Print Friendly screen in portal, the following error appears: You do not have access to run this option.

access

PeopleXD Expense

Useful Links

Privacy Policy