

 Search for articles...

All Collections > Structure

Structure

Organisational structure and hierarchy.

 By Steve • 9 articles

Portal: Add new reference data to your organisation structure

Create new reference data and add them to your organisation structure.

An incorrect manager is showing for an employee

Reports to Manager isn't displaying the current manager or no line manager is being shown.

Portal: Change a company name

How to update the name of the company.

Remove a vacant post from the Org Chart

There are vacant positions appearing on the Org Chart that need removing. When viewing the appointments in Post Profile Maintenance they have a status of...

Back Office: Configuring org roles and groups

The procedure to configure org roles and groups in CoreHR, and the steps to assign users to the roles.

Back Office: Add new location to the organisational hierarchy structure

Organisation has added a new location to their business and needs this to reflect on the system.

Back Office: Add a new unit to the business structure

Create new items - such as departments, management units, cost centres and locations - and add them to the organisational hierarchy. >

Back Office: Validate organisational hierarchy structure

On the Maintain Organisational Hierarchy screen, the checks that can be made to ensure that the hierarchy is set up correctly. >

Assign organisational roles to employees

How to assign Org Roles to Employees. >