

 Search for articles...

All Collections > Contracts and appointments

Contracts and appointments

Creating, updating and maintaining employee contract and appointment data.

S By Steve and 4 others • 51 articles

Portal: Updating an appointment end date

Amending or removing an employee's end date in PeopleXD People Management.

Switching an incorrectly assigned post

Reassign an employee to the correct post if they've been incorrectly assigned to another.

Portal: Contract start date corrections

Amending the commencement date of an employee's appointment.

Portal: Deleting an appointment

Removing a contract or contract sequence from an employee's record.

Rules for deleting appointments

When trying to delete an appointment, the system produces an error.

Delete an employee set up in error

Remove an employee from the system that was added in error.

Portal: Make a post substantive

Steps to set a primary appointment or contract as substantive.

End an employee's appointment

Ending an employees contract without making them a leaver.

Creating an additional contract for an employee

Assign an additional appointment to an employee that won't be their substantive appointment.

Commencing an appointment

Commencing a contract with a status of pending, confirmed future, or payroll processing when it's start date has passed.

Updating data in bulk via the Data Migration Update Facility

Overview of data that can be updated via the Data Migration Update Facility

Make a post dormant or active

You can make a post dormant if its no longer needed or reactivate a post that has been set dormant previously

The system prompts a post switch when deleting a contract for an employee with two active posts

Error message 'We can't delete this contract as an employee record requires at least one contract, would you like to switch post instead?'

Portal: Overriding system-generated continuous service values

Amend the continuous service values generated by the system to reflect an acquisition or if the employee has taken a career break.

Using continuous service

Continuous service calculation and rules configuration.

Change the pay group for an employee that hasn't moved over to payroll

Change the pay group for an employee not assigned to PeopleXD Payroll.

Replace a contract

Replace an employee's current appointment with a new one.

Duplicate substantive appointment for an employee

When selecting a contract for an employee, they have duplicate appointments with a star identifying them as substantive.

Portal: Cancel a substantive row

Cancelling a substantive appointment on the Substantive Maintenance screen.

Portal: Create a new post profile record

Create a new post profile record for a job in the organisation.

Overriding the Reports To manager

How to override the manager for an employee when they are not the configured work group manager.

Create a terms and conditions profile to assign to a post

How to create a new set of terms and conditions rules and assign them to a post.

Portal: Manage an employee's substantive record

How to manage, amend or cancel an employee's substantive record.

Amend job title for an employee

Change the job title on an appointment without setting up a new post.

Target end date and planned end date differences

When amending an employee's record, identifying the difference between the target and planned end dates, and what their functions are.

Back Office: Restructuring types available with a post restructure

What's the difference between the two restructuring types available when creating a new profile under the Post Restructuring option?

Back Office: Update an appointment end date

Amend or remove an end date from an employee's appointment if an incorrect leave date was entered, or if the employee is no longer leaving the organisation.

Overview of substantive appointment software

As substantive appointments are standard in PeopleXD, what are its main points and advantages?

Error - 'Start date must be greater than start date of existing post' on a new appointment

When creating a new appointment and selecting the option to replace an existing one, the following message appears - 'Start date must be greater than start date of...

Recommended procedure for setting up an unpaid career break post

For clients who are set up with the ability to take on career break posts, the steps to follow when an employee goes on an unpaid career break.

Amend the post FTE against a post profile record

How to update a current Post's FTE.

Back Office: Create a new post profile record

Create a new Post Profile record for a job in the organisation in Back Office.

Error - 'Error nnnnn does not have an active Primary Appointment effective on dd-mm-yy setup not allowed.'

An error appears when attempting to bring an employee through to payroll.

Message 'Error in Create Salaries. (employee no) does not have an active Primary...

Back Office: Manager unable to access all employees

Manager Cannot find an employee on the team scheduler, or see leave requests

Back Office: Bulk ending appointments and processing leavers

The functionality available in the system to bulk close/end appointments and process employees as leavers.

Back Office: Creating a historic appointment / contract amendment for an employee

Retrospectively enter an historic appointment to reflect an employee's movements in an organisation and to offer a complete history

Error - 'Query caused no records to be retrieved'

The message 'Query Caused No Records to be Retrieved' is returned on back office screens, including the Personal Profile 'Search' screen, Person Profile/Personal Det...

Back Office: Replace an existing appointment

In CorePersonnel, how to replace an existing appointment for an employee.

Error - 'Invalid Payroll Status, Cannot Process Employee Please Contact Support'

When trying to commence an employee in a post, the message 'Error - Invalid Payroll Status, Cannot Process Employee, Please Contact Support' or message - 'Invalid...

Implement a career break in a post management environment

Steps should to be taken to put an employee on / take off a career break in a post management site.

Back Office: Change FTE hours for a current post

How to change an employees FTE hours associated against their current post.

Error - 'PER621-002: Leave Date Cannot be Less Than the Appointment Sequence Start Date'

On Appointment Details screen, when End Appointment is selected and updated, the message - 'PER621-002: Leave date cannot be less than the Appointment Sequence...

Back Office: Add a cost allocation

How to assign a cost allocation to an employee or post.

Delete an employee's contract in portal

Delete an employee's contract or contract sequence.

Amend an employee's contract

How to amend an employee's contract, including amendments that impact salary.

Change post title on an existing appointment or post Back Office

Is it possible to update a Post Title for a Post in CorePersonnel?

Amend appointment details of existing appointment in back office

Change the post type of a commenced appointment.

Length of Service versus Total Length of Service

CorePersonnel - Query Total Length of Service vs Length of Service

Portal: Amend appointment details of existing appointment

Updating details of the current contract without creating a new sequence. Change the post type of a commenced appointment. Update the employee status or sub...

Change contract hours

Update your employee's contracted hours and salary without completing a full contract amendment.

Back Office: Make a substantive post

Steps to make an employee's appointment their substantive appointment.

